"Mementos"

We couldn't let him go with just one saddened cry;
There are too many things to remember him by.

He deeply loved animals--a rare, noble trait;
His skill as a horseman sent him to state.
If an entertainer was needed, Dave got the part;
Because Dave always carried a song in his heart.

We remember his heed and concern for his friends,
His understanding of them went beyond normal ends.
We remember Dave's laughter and vitality,
And admire the person that he aspired to be.

Faculty Assembly

What do you mean, I didn't brush my teeth?

Put your arm down, the war's over!

If I've told you about that skirt once, I've told you a hundred times, it's too long!

While Sheahan's away, the teachers will play!

What do you mean my hair's too long?

All right, fellas!

Well, we only missed that deadline by three weeks.

Listen, punk!

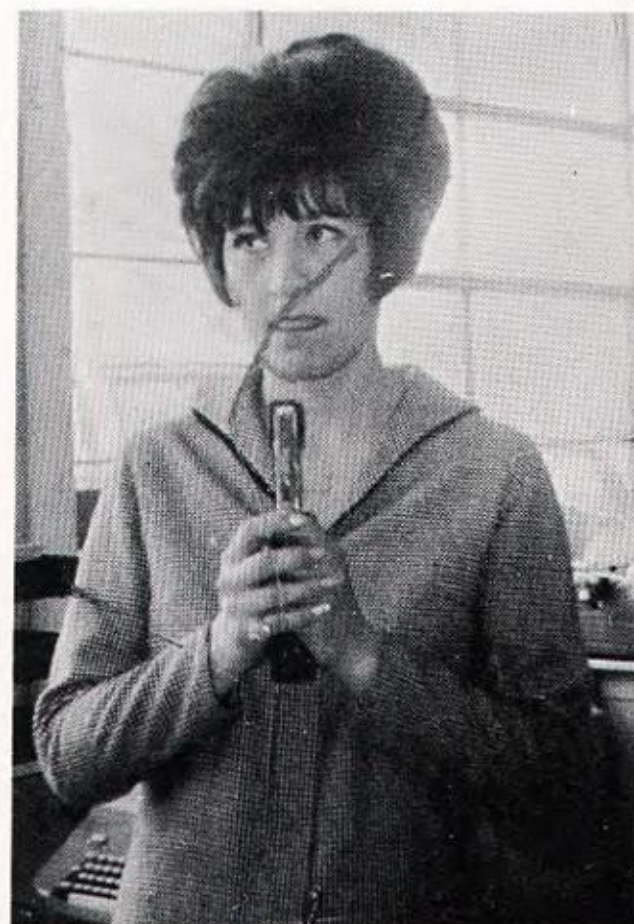

The javelin landed... where?

Oh no! Another mouth to feed.

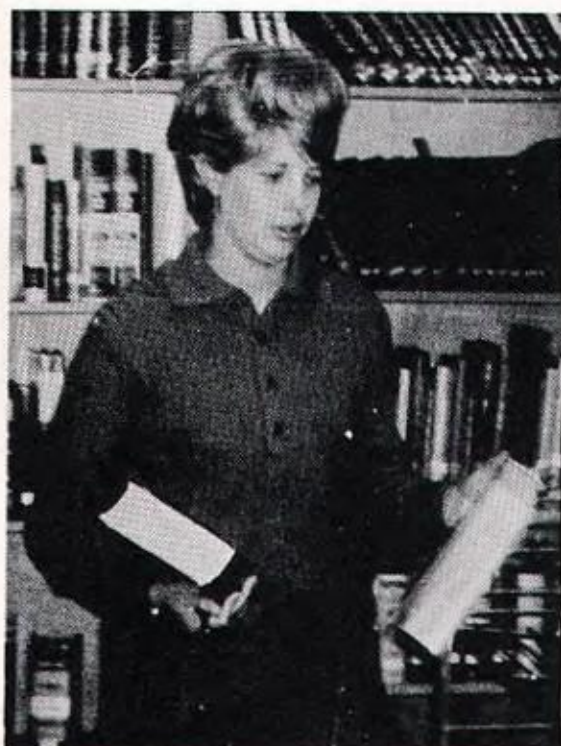

That was a beautiful story, now let's hear the truth.

Stand back or I'll shoot!

Well, I guess I took care of them.

Tomorrow's just got to be better.

Candid?

'68 - Great Season

Coach Hartman and his assistant Mr. Stueve expect Mead to have a good track season this year. Our first track meet in the Valley League proved to be quite thrilling because of a tie with University, the top rated team.

His all-star list is headed by Tom Wood, city record holder in the shot put; 6-foot plus high jumper Walt Fernau; sprint star and broad jumper Craig Swift; two-miler Terry Best; and Mead's best ever pole vaulter, Greg Luft. Our "other" track stars have improved very much this year to add to our team point total. This year the javelin and discus have been added to the list of events. Mead has high hopes of sending some representatives to state.

Panther's Court

Coaches Smithpeters and Gray. Managers:
Doug Tolmie, Glen Ames, and Dan Stoneman

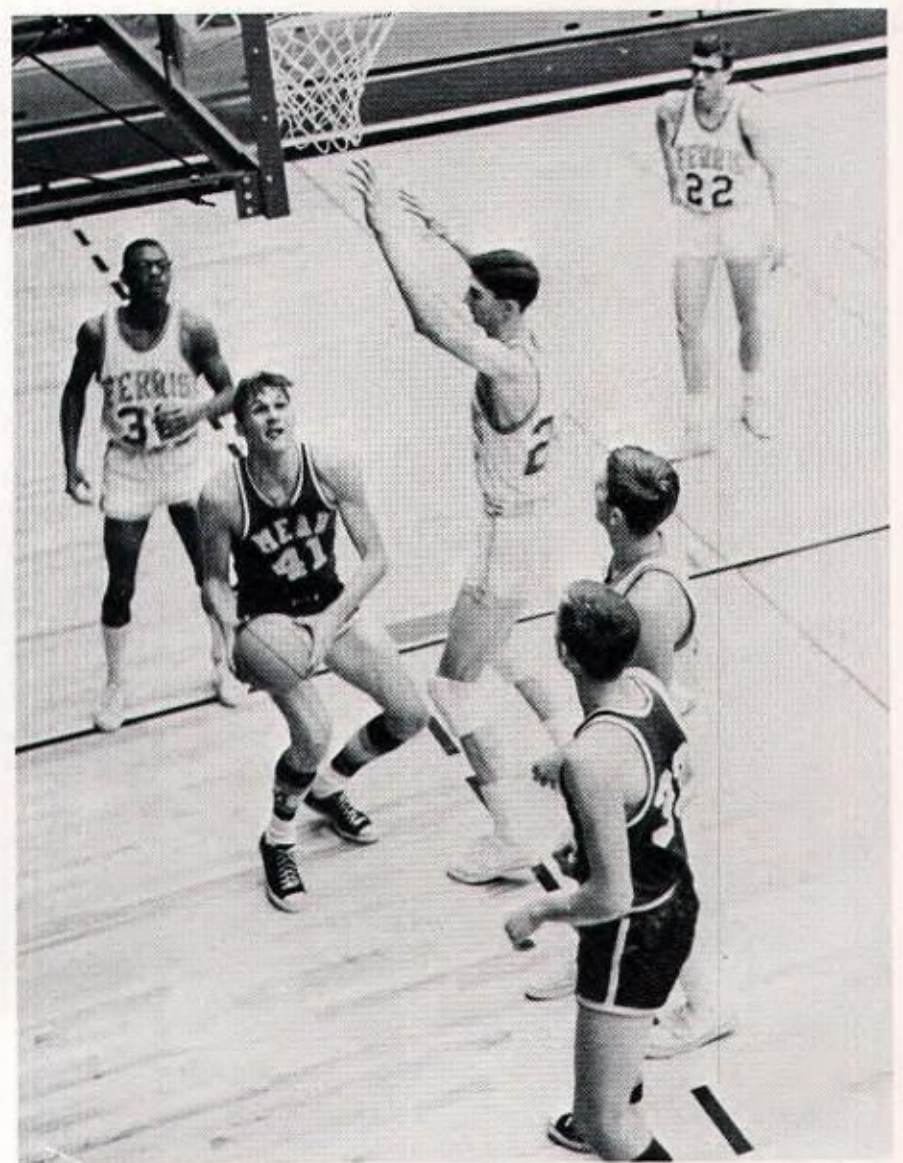

The 1967-68 Panthers displayed the look of the "Young Ones", with a sparkling eye to the future. The Panthers met each team with a spirit of great competitiveness. They provided that extra offensive punch and proved to be top rebounders.

The ball took many unusual bounces for the Panthers, including the 56-54 loss to the Rogers Pirates at the Coliseum and a tremendous 59-52 victory over the mighty Shadle Park Highlanders.

With the returning of this year's lettermen, and the participation in a new league, Panthers should really do great next year.

Merry Have alot of fun this summer
 and stay out of places. Let your hair grow out there boy and you will be in good shape.

 Doug Wise

"D", "S" and "F" the "B" out of as many girls as you can this summer. You'll have to come up to the lake and with check all the chicks out and maybe even have some over to watch
 the late movie in our room which is separated from the parents level completely. I won't ask for a dime for a nutty buddy. See you boy.
 Wayne.

[illegible]

Jerry not to get Tina excited about Linda. Good

Jeff,

Haven't we really accomplished lots in History? We gone through student teachers (god!), squirt gun attacks by retarded boys (god?),
and monotone lectures by Mr.
Stoney. Spanish wasn't much better. But I must say that I enjoyed your stupid little pranks and the all the "trips"
you gave me — stickin' your ol' cloudy foot out and I land on my face. But, you & Doug should have a lot of fun this summer. I can tell a right now —
with you two runnin' around,
it's gonna be a hell-raising summer! I'm sure I'll see ya this summer. Read lots of Spanish written History books this summer.

Love ya,

Patty M.
